

Celebrating Hispanic Heritage

U.S. Consulate General Shanghai Film Series -Fall 2015

Thursday

Sept 24, Oct 8 & 15

6:30 pm

Hispanic Heritage Month began as National Hispanic Heritage Week in 1968, proclaimed as such by U.S. President Lyndon B. Johnson. It was expanded to a month-long celebration in 1988. This month celebrates the traditions and cultures of all Americans who trace their roots to Spain, Mexico, and the Spanish-speaking nations of Central America, South America, and the Caribbean.

To celebrate the ways Hispanics have enriched the American character, Shanghai American Center hereby presents its Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Film Series, giving you the best insight into the Hispanic culture.

Films will be shown at 6:30 pm in the Shanghai American Center of the U.S. Consulate General in Shanghai (Room 540, East Tower, Shanghai Center, No.1376 West Nanjing Road). Before each movie, an American diplomat will talk about each of these movies' legacies.

Admission is FREE and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served. If you would like to attend, please click the links below. If you have any questions, please contact rsvpshanghaipas@state.gov.
